

Laboratory Safety Quiz

The Evergreen State College, Olympia, WA

Please answer each of the following questions, giving examples where appropriate.

Date: _____

Program: _____

Name: _____

1. How would you dial for a fire truck or ambulance from a campus phone?
2. Describe proper lab attire and hygiene.
3. When should you wear eye protection in the lab?
4. Where can you eat or drink in the lab?
5. What chemical information reference sources can you think of?
6. You are handling an organic solvent and/or doing heavy work.
 - a. What type of gloves would you choose?
 - b. Would latex gloves be a good choice? Why or why not?

7. How would you label a chemical bottle, flask, or other chemical container?

8. Where do you store backpacks or coats in the lab? Can you put your lab projects there as well?

9. How would you interpret an HMIS label with the number 5618 and a rating of 3-4-1-3?

10. What procedure would you follow if you had a spill and/or broke something?

11. What should you do if your lab partner catches fire?

12. What would you do if you walked by a closed Lab room and saw someone inside lying unconscious on the floor?

13. How do you handle and dispose of chemical waste in the lab?

Laboratory Safety Signoff
The Evergreen State College, Olympia, WA

SIT use only
Date
Checked

I have read the TESC Laboratory Safety Handbook, which sets forth the Rules and Safe Practices to be followed in the Laboratory Buildings. After studying its contents, I understand that I am responsible for obeying the safety rules and for exercising good judgment in the application of safe practices to prevent accidents that might result in injury to either myself or my co-workers.

Date: _____

Program: _____

Name: _____

Signature: _____